

Are you a recruitment professional who wants to stay ahead of the game?

The REC's Institute of Recruitment Professionals (IRP) is here to help you gain credibility with clients, candidates and peers, maximise opportunities and reap the rewards of becoming a member.

Your membership will clearly indicate that you are serious about your profession and that you adhere to the industry's Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct supported by a UK wide network of regional branches.

For more details on membership levels and how to join the Institute, please contact the IRP Membership Team by email irp@rec-irp.uk.com or by telephone 020 7009 2124 / 2192.

BENEFITS OF THE INSTITUTE OF RECRUITMENT PROFESSIONALS TO YOU

- ✓ Networking opportunities through regional events
- ✓ A complete online suite of legal information on all aspects of the recruitment industry
- ✓ Provides data on companies and learning resources through online information from the Chartered Management Institute (CMI)
- ✓ Access to a network of recruitment professionals through designated contacts at regional branches throughout the UK
- ✓ Exclusive members-only content of the IRP website delivers a user-friendly one-stop shop for recruitment professionals packed with practical tools and advice
- ✓ Demonstrates credibility to clients, candidates and peers that you are part of an established organisation with use of designated letters and logos after your name
- ✓ Opportunities for training and professional qualifications at a discounted rate
- ✓ Access to exclusive publications and information to members including the monthly Recruitment Matters magazine, reports, newsletters and recruitment guides

www.rec-irp.uk.com

advancing the recruitment profession